

Cost of Unintentional Injury in Atlantic Canada

Cost of Injury in Atlantic Canada Report 2022
Newfoundland and Labrador (0-14 years old)

In 2018:

$117.3
million

was spent Atlantic wide on unintentional injuries among children (0-14)

$22.05
million

was spent in NL on unintentional injuries among children (0-14)

$303.32
per capita

is the total cost of unintentional injury in children (0-14) in NL

In 2018, Unintentional Injuries among children 0-14 also resulted in:

Atlantic Canada

8
deaths

750
hospitalizations

184
disabilities

46,181
emergency
department visits

NFLD & Labrador

<5*
deaths

137
hospitalizations

34
disabilities

8382
emergency
department visits

We do not report the exact number of deaths when there are fewer than 5 per year to help protect the identities of the children and youth, and their families

Falls resulted in the province's highest costs for unintentional injuries in children

$10.56
million

Atlantic Canada has higher hospitalization rates than Canada for falls, transport incidents, unintentional poisoning, and fire/burns

The leading cause of hospitalization in Newfoundland & Labrador is falls (62), followed by transport incidents (25) and fire/burns (8)

*motor vehicle, ATV/snowmobile, pedestrian, pedal cycle, and other transport

Newfoundland & Labrador has the highest rate per 100,000 of emergency department visits for fire/burns and drowning compared to Canada, Atlantic Canada, and the individual Atlantic provinces